

TYPICAL SERVICING-RELATED FEES THAT BSI FINANCIAL MAY CHARGE BORROWERS

Below is a list of standard or common fees that BSI Financial Services (“BSI Financial”) may charge you, the borrower, depending on the services you request or the loan servicing activity that we perform and with respect to which we are entitled by applicable law or the loan documents to charge a fee. In some cases, BSI Financial may retain the fee and in others the fee may be a pass-through fee that BSI Financial pays to a third-party vendor. In the case of a pass-through fee, BSI Financial will never charge a borrower more money than it is charged by a third-party vendor to perform the particular service. Actual fees may vary depending upon the terms of your loan documents and are subject to all applicable laws and regulations.

IMPORTANT NOTE: This list does not include all fees and costs that may be charged for certain services that may be rendered to BSI Financial, but charged to the borrower in connection with a bankruptcy or foreclosure or other litigation or default situation, including, but not limited to, foreclosure costs, bankruptcy fees, attorneys’ fees, and court costs.
